If you want to register and borrow in a single visit, and cannot attend during staffed hours, you may go to the Philosophy and Theology Faculties Library (at Radcliffe Humanities, across the road from the LCL), and staff there will process your registration request so that you can then return to the LCL and borrow.

FACILITIES
The library holds some 10,000 books, CDs, and DVDs, and some magazines and newspapers. There are two self-study rooms where you may use our audio-visual resources. There are no photocopying facilities at present.

FINDING WHAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
All LCL books are catalogued on the University of Oxford’s Libraries Search and Discovery tool SOLO

You can restrict your search to the Language Centre Library only. Sign in to SOLO with your University Single Sign On in order to place holds and access your borrower record.

SOLO provides:
- The item shelfmark, so that you can locate it in the library
- Loan status – Available means you can borrow, a due back date means it has been borrowed. Reference may not be removed from the Centre.

All library material is classified alphabetically by language and most shelfmarks start with the first two letters of the name of the language in English. For example, AR for Arabic, FR for French, GE for German, EFL for English (English as a Foreign Language). There is more information on the collections on Page 3 of this guide.

DETAILS OF THE COLLECTIONS

BOOKS AND AUDIO-VISUAL MATERIAL

1. REFERENCE

1.1 DICTIONARIES, GRAMMARS, VOCABULARIES
The reference collection is at the beginning of the book collection, consists of dictionaries (bilingual and monolingual), grammars in English and in the target language, grammars with exercises, vocabulary builders, subject vocabulary builders and books on writing style.

1.2 CALL (Computer Assisted Language Learning)
CALLs are installed on the networked computers. Most CD-ROMs will be on the CD shelves. Some, not yet catalogued, will be in the Librarian’s Office.

2. TEXTBOOKS/LITERATURE/READING/PHONETICS/GENERALITES

2.1 TEXTBOOKS
The second part of the book collection which is found after the reference collection, starts with textbooks which are classified alphabetically by language and then alphabetically by title. It is then followed by listening and reading material, literature (bilingual English-target language and monolingual), music, video scripts and introduction to the culture of the country.

Most textbooks are accompanied by CDs, sometimes also video and CALL (Computer Assisted Language Learning, see 1.3). The shelfmark on the textbook will indicate whether or not the textbook works alongside other material. For example the textbook Sueños world Spanish, which you will find under the letter S in the textbooks collection, will have the following shelfmarks:

SP Shelfmark for Spanish
CCU Shelfmark for CDs (starting with C) 1-8

SP VBE Shelfmark for Videos
1-20 (starting with V)

The textbook Sueños world Spanish is accompanied by 8 CDs and 20 videos. Tapes and videos accompanying textbooks are shelved alphabetically by shelfmark (and not by title like the textbooks). For example the tapes for Sueños are placed at SP CCU which one would find after SP CCT, the videos will be after SP VBD.

2.2 LITERATURE & OTHER MATERIAL ON READING
After the textbook section, you will find a literature section. Most languages taught at the Language Centre will have a literature section with books in the target language, bilingual books (English-target language) and books about reading in general.

2.3 GENERALITIES
After the textbook section, you will find a generalities section. Here you will find books on the general culture of the country.

2.4 PHONETICS
The phonetics books will help you with your pronunciation. The shelfmark is going to be PH + Language shelfmark, for example SP for Spanish. Most of the books are accompanied by CDs which you will find at the end of each language CDs section.
3. DVDs

3.1 FILMS
DVDs are shelved alphabetically by language. At the beginning of each language section you will find the film collection, classified alphabetically by director’s name, for example: SP V ALM for a film by Almodóvar.

3.2 EURECAP COLLECTION
The collection consists of same-language subtitles for French, German, Italian and Spanish. The collection is available on the carousel, next to the CD collection.

3.3 DOCUMENTARIES AND TEXTBOOK DVDs
The second section will be for documentaries and DVDs linked with textbooks. The classification is alphabetical by shelfmark, for example: FR VA will be followed by FR VB etc.
